

aXtion Extreme for iPhone 15

Built for hazardous environments, the aXtion Extreme for iPhone 15 delivers rugged drop protection, MagSafe compatibility, and 9H tempered glass screen protector.

SKU: HPA3024

The aXtion Extreme for iPhone 15 isn't just tough—it's certified tough. Designed for hazardous locations, this case is your frontline defense in environments where flammable gases, combustible dust, and airborne ignitables might be present. When the stakes are high, your gear shouldn't flinch.

Engineered to exceed MIL-STD-810H drop tests, it features reinforced corners and shock-absorbing construction that shrugs off impacts like a pro. MagSafe compatibility keeps you powered and connected with rock-solid magnetic alignment—no fumbling, no downtime.

And because visibility matters, we've built in a premium 9H tempered glass screen protector with anti-glare, fingerprint resistance, and waterproof coating. It's scratch-proof, smudge-proof, and made for full-throttle field work.

Dual lanyard ports and a removable corner strap system give you flexible, secure carry options—because dropping your phone shouldn't even be a thought.

- Third-party certified for hazardous locations. Built for environments where flammable gases, combustible dust, and airborne ignitables may be present—this case is ready for the extreme.
- Takes hits like a pro. MIL-STD-810H drop-tested with reinforced corners and shock-absorbing design for serious impact protection.
- MagSafe that won't budge. Fast, precise alignment with a rock-solid hold—stay charged and connected without the slip.
- This product is not a standalone case. Certification applies only when a compatible device is paired with the aXtion Extreme enclosure through the approved integration process.
